- Resources – access to the programme, including online tools and learning materials
- Support – guidance on all aspects of the programme, including securing a mentor
- Events – entry to a local practice event, a regional tournament and, where successful, the UK championships
- Accreditation – access to accredited CREST and Industrial Cadets awards<sup>1</sup>

- Bursaries – ability to apply for grants supporting participation (kits, travel, supply cover)

Upon payment of the Commitment fee, You undertake to deliver the programme to the best of your ability and maximise impact on your Participants including:

- Assembling a diverse and inclusive team in accordance with our EDI pledge
- Securing a mentor, using advice and tools provided by Us
- Meeting frequently (ideally weekly, 1-2 hours from Sep to Mar)
- Registering the team on the FIRST Inspires platform, by the required deadline
- Attending a 4 hour local practice event (afternoon Dec 2023)
- Participating in 1-day regional tournament (Feb-Mar 2024)
- Complying with any conditions associated with bursaries or grant awards
- Ensuring Participants complete evaluation surveys issued by Us

Safeguarding

FIRST UK is committed to ensuring that all Participants have a positive and safe experience on the programme, in line with its Safeguarding Policy.

The ultimate responsibility for safeguarding lies with the Participating Establishment. The Participating Establishment should appoint a designated employee to act as Safeguarding Lead, as well as a deputy. These representatives must remain on site and ensure Participants are supervised at all times by the relevant teaching staff, including when a mentor, FIRST UK staff, or other adult is present. All Participants should adhere to Keeping Children Safe in Education and any relevant guidance and legislation. It is the Participating Establishment's responsibility to undertake necessary risk assessments as well as take into consideration any additional requirements of Participants or attendees of the programme.

Privacy and consent

FIRST UK encourages Participants to document and share their experiences (in the form of film, audio and photography). These images may be shared by the Participant or Participating Establishment online via social media and/or with/by FIRST UK. Where such sharing occurs, implicit consent is deemed provided for FIRST UK to use imagery, film and content for the purposes of publicity and promotion.

Where FIRST UK captures images or video of Participants at events or other contexts, prior consent will be obtained via an opt-out process in line with our Consent Policy.

Imagery and film stored by FIRST UK will be retained in perpetuity. No names of young people will be used or attributed without explicit prior written consent. It is the responsibility of the Participating Establishment to ensure parents or carers of Participants complete any necessary consent to participate in the programme. Information on how We process data is found in our Privacy Policy.

Intellectual property

Participating Establishment and is subject to meeting pre-defined eligibility criteria and any payment to the provider unless otherwise specified by FIRST UK.

All copyright, trademarks, design rights, and other intellectual property rights (registered and unregistered) in and on the website as well as all content provided by FIRST UK shall remain vested in FIRST UK or its licensors. The Participating Establishment will be granted access to all relevant materials required for the programme, to be used for participation in the programme only. The use of these materials is not permitted for any other purpose and commercial use is prohibited. If the Participating Establishment would like to use any materials for any other use, consent from FIRST UK must be sought in advance.

Complaints

Complaints should be raised in accordance with the FIRST UK Complaints Policy. In the event of a dispute, the parties shall attempt to resolve the matter in good faith and escalate internally, where appropriate. These terms shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of England and Wales which shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute.

Termination and cancellation

FIRST UK reserves the right to terminate this agreement (and refund any deposits paid) and, where kit fees have been paid and termination is on our side, to refund the kit fees as long as the kit is returned in its original condition. This includes a right to postpone, amend, or cancel events without incurring any liability. We require all participating teams to have their own insurances to participate in the programme and to attend events.
